

Privacy Notice

Orangegrove Athletics Club (OAC) are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, OAC is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way.

What personal data we hold on you

You may give us information about you by filling in forms at an event or online, or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register with the Club or participate in discussion boards on our members Facebook group. The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number, next of kin, name of the Athletics NI affiliated Clubs with which you are registered and gender (Athletics Data). We may also ask for relevant health information, which is classed as special category personal data.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your Athletics Data is to be able to administer your membership, and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services you are registering for.

Reasons we need to process your data include:

For membership and club management

- processing of membership forms and payments;
- sharing data with committee members, club captains and coaches to provide information about club activities, membership renewals or invitation to social events;
- promoting club activity; and
- publishing of weekly club report and race and competition results

For training and competition entry

- sharing personal data with club coaches or officials to administer training sessions;
- sharing personal data with club team captains to enter events;
- sharing personal data with facility providers to manage access to the track or check delivery standards;

For funding and reporting purposes

- sharing anonymised data with a funding partner as condition of grant funding e.g. Local Authority;
- analysing anonymised data to monitor club trends; and
- sending an occasional club survey to improve your experience as a club member

Marketing and communications (where separate consent is provided)

- sending information about promotions and offers from sponsors;
- sending information about selling club kit, merchandise or fundraising.

Any special category health data we hold on you is only processed for the purpose(s) of passing health data to coaches to allow the safe running of training sessions. We process this data on the lawful basis of consent. Therefore, we will also need your explicit consent to process this data, which we will ask for at the point of collecting it.

The club has the following social media pages: Facebook; Twitter; Instagram. All members are free to join these pages. If you join one of the Social Media pages, please note that provider of the social media platform(s) have their own privacy policies and that the club do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data on the club social media pages.

Who we share your personal data with

When you become a member of or renew your membership with Orangegroove Athletics Club you can also choose to be registered as a member of Athletics Northern Ireland (you will have to register with Athletics Northern Ireland if you ever compete for the club in competition). If you tick the relevant box on the application /renewal form we will provide Athletics Northern Ireland with your personal data which they will use to enable access to an online portal for you.

If you do not tick the box and then later decide to compete for the club, we will need to register you with Athletics Northern Ireland and we will inform you at that time.

The Club does not supply any personal data it holds for this purpose to any other third party. The Club does not store or transfer your personal data outside of the UK.

How long we hold your personal data

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Athlete data is updated every year on annual membership forms. Any personal data we hold on you will be securely destroyed after four years of inactivity on that member's account, in line with England Athletics Limited's retention policy. Your data is not processed for any further purposes other than those detailed in this policy.

Your rights regarding your personal data

As a data subject you may have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data, including direct marketing; to the portability of your personal data and to complain to the UK's data protection supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office about the processing of your personal data.

As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us we may not be able to register or administer your membership.
